Land / Farm on 10 Acres

Kee-El, Paige, TX

If you are looking for an escape to the quiet sounds of nature and a chance to enjoy the stars at night, this tract is perfect for you! Located within an hour of Austin, the location of this place in the country makes it an easy commute to the city. Make time to see this beautiful 10.08-acre tract in Bastrop County, located near Hwy 290 and Hwy 21 East. It is scattered with oak, cedar, and pine trees and includes a stock pond, a 2,496 square foot pole barn on a concrete slab, and previously used as a hangar. The pole barn, close to the stock pond, would be ideal turning it into a house in the country. County water and electricity are easily accessible from the adjoining property. There are no property restrictions. Partial perimeter fencing provides a perfect setup for livestock and an ideal place to build a home, or a weekend getaway cabin. Located within an hour of Austin, the location of this place in the country makes it an easy commute to the city.
