This would be a great investment for someone to put tiny homes on and rent them out. Don't miss your chance to own these 8 lots that total .99 of an acre. They are just across the street from Lake Buchanan where you can spend the day out on the lake and if you don't want to take your boat all the way home these lots would a perfect place to build a Storage building for you to keep your Boat or Jet Ski. Burnet County boat ramp is just a few feet away. If you want to just put yourself a tiny home so you have a place to stay this would also make the perfect location. Septic and well are required. There are also other options such a rain water collection and a holding tank. Some tiny homes are classified as an RV so it allows for the holding tank. All inforationwould need to be verified by the buyer.
