A0632 MINA WILSON SURVEY, 20.3 ACRES,
Dripping Springs, TX

A rare piece of paradise in Dripping Springs! Owner financing available at terms below market - see agent for details. This 20.3 acre property is nestled among a private road outside of the hustle and bustle of downtown Dripping Springs. While still being an easy distance to all of the Dripping Springs amenities, this property is also zoned within the exemplary DSISD as well as being included in the school districts' bus routes. This lot has been partially cleared and highlights the many nature trails within the property, has a stunning ravine running through the acreage and is partially fenced on 3 sides. There is an established Ag exemption already in place with the ability to convert to a Wildlife exemption (see agent for details). The building site is cleared with amazing privacy & views. This property has no restrictions and owner financing available, see agent for terms and details. Come find your escape in this tucked away hill country retreat, this is what you've been looking for.
