Rare find in Zilker/Barton Hills in 78704! This charming duplex features two 2 BD/2BA units that are brimming with character! This property offers a prime investment opportunity and ADU or Owner-Occupant Opportunity! 2011 Westridge Drive is an exceptional and rare find in the heart of Austin's beloved 78704, where multifamily offerings of this kind are limited and highly sought-after. This 2,294 sq ft duplex, situated on a generous .202-acre lot, offers two spacious units with open floor plans, private porches, and expansive outdoor space. Recent updates and thoughtful maintenance make this a turn-key option for house-hackers, investors, or multigenerational living. Zoned multifamily with a composition shingle roof, slab foundation, and ample room to expand, the property also features wood decking, great storage, and ideal off-street parking to appeal to renters. Preliminary feasibility studies suggest the potential to add an ADU, creating even more long-term value through added rental income or flexible housing options, especially with this sought-after, prime location! This makes 2011 Westridge an ideal opportunity for those looking to build equity and maximize use in a fast-appreciating urban core. Enjoy unbeatable access to Barton Hills, Zilker Park, Barton Springs, South Lamar, South Congress, and the best of Central Austin's restaurants, boutiques, and nightlife. Investor-friendly, centrally located, and rich with potential, this is a rare chance to own in one of Austin's most dynamic and walkable neighborhoods.
