Classic wood floors throughout the living & bedrooms with architectural window screens add to the 1940s™ charm. Both bedrooms are sizeable with larger closets than are typically found in these older homes. The backyard features towering trees and privacy that backs to a heavily wooded yard that is home to owls, hawks, herons, and tons of songbirds. The native landscaping also attracts tons of hummingbirds and butterflies. This bungalow has a fully fenced in front yard with a Texas native garden that is beautiful yet quite easy to maintain. Owners have sketched out a plant map that is available in the house. Other notable updates include: HVAC approx 5 years old, Roof replaced in 2024, plumbing under house is PVC & french drain.
