Timeless Tarrytown Gem with a separate Guest Cottage— Classic Charm Meets Modern Living

Welcome to 2004 Bremen, a beautifully preserved and thoughtfully updated home in the heart of Tarrytown with a separate guest cottage. Originally built in 1946 and completely renovated down to the studs in 2009, this residence blends historic charm with modern comfort in one of Austin's most beloved neighborhoods.

Inside, you'll find two spacious bedrooms and two full bathrooms, featuring original hardwood floors, rich mahogany cabinetry and accents, and a slate fireplace that anchors the sunlit living room with character and warmth. The primary suite offers privacy and luxury, complete with a walk-in closet, dual vessel sinks, and an updated bathroom featuring a tiled walk-in shower and custom mahogany cabinetry by J&D Woodwork.

The home's exterior exudes curb appeal with thoughtful details like a stained glass house number, decorative tile on the steps, and built-in benches on the inviting front porch. Additional highlights include:

- * Upstairs bonus space—ideal for a home theater, office, or flex room (square footage not included in main living area)
- * Spacious laundry room with sink and storage
- * Surround sound throughout the home and outdoor patio
- * Large wall of windows and glass doors opening to a private backyard and covered

patio, perfect for relaxing or entertaining
At the back of the property, a detached guest cottage with a full vintage bathroom and kitchen offers excellent space for guests or potential rental income. Behind the cottage, a separate air-conditioned workshop that could be a perfect space for a yoga studio or office. Located just minutes from Tarrytown Park, Littlefieldâ€™s, Lions Municipal Golf Course, Casis Village, and downtown Austin, this property offers rare flexibility, timeless character, and an unbeatable location. Donâ€™t miss this opportunity to own a classic piece of Tarrytown.

Built in 1946
