5 Bedroom, 5.00 Bathroom, 4,140 sqft

Residential on 0.41 Acres

L S C 1st, Lampasas, TX

Situated on a prominent corner lot and framed by majestic heritage oaks, this exquisite and unique 1920 Craftsman-era residence is a standout among Lampasas' historical homes. The home has been meticulously and proudly restored, a true testament to luxurious living with its perfect blend of comfort and elegance. Spanning 4,140 square feet, the main level welcomes you into a stunning foyer defined by rich, walnut-toned walls, coffered ceilings, a grand staircase, and elegant light fixtures. A sophisticated library with a fireplace is to your right, with a formal dining room to your left. The fully remodeled and updated kitchen is the heart of the home, featuring stainless steel appliances, granite countertops, and a fully restored and operational Chambers gas range. A sunroom and pantry extend from the kitchen, which also adjoins a cozy sitting room. The first floor includes one bedroom and one and a half bathrooms, while the unique double staircase leads to the second level, which houses four bedrooms and three full bathrooms.

Unlike most historical homes, this property's 720 Sq ft basement is fully functional and well-lit, making it an ideal space for a hobbyist, wine collection, personal gym or game room. Additional lodging includes a 460-square-foot guest apartment located above the enclosed garage, providing a comfortable & charming space for visitors, complete with a full kitchen, full restroom, and plenty of natural light. The oversized patios, verandas, and covered porches further contribute to the home's remarkable character and appeal. Imagine yourself owning this impressive estate. Homes such as this are a rare find.

Built in 1920
