George G Blackwell, Wimberley, TX

Welcome to River's Edge Retreat, spanning over 3 magnificent acres along one of River Road's most coveted stretches. This exceptional residence offers direct access to the crystal-clear Blanco River, crowned by a private bluff showcasing breathtaking Hill Country vistas that captivate at every glance. Meticulously positioned to embrace its natural surroundings, the property is graced by a majestic forest of cypress, pecan, and old-growth oak trees, creating a natural canopy that provides cool shade and unparalleled privacy throughout the grounds. Each thoughtfully curated vantage point, whether from the riverside gathering spaces, secluded picnic areas, or the dramatic bluff overlook, invites you to immerse yourself in the property's natural splendor. This residence masterfully balances rustic charm with refined modern comforts, offering 4 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms in a warm, inviting layout that caters to both everyday living and weekend entertaining. Expansive windows frame the stunning natural surroundings like living artwork, while thoughtfully designed outdoor spaces create seamless transitions between interior comfort and the property's natural beauty, perfect for both grand gatherings and intimate moments of reflection. This rare fusion of riverfront access, sweeping Hill Country views, and absolute privacy positions 1920 River Road as more than just a residence—it's a gateway to Wimberley's coveted lifestyle, where nature and luxury coexist in perfect harmony. Whether envisioned as a primary residence, a sophisticated retreat, or a legacy property to be cherished across generations, this extraordinary haven stands ready to become the backdrop for life's most memorable moments. Don't miss your opportunity to own a piece of Wimberley's most coveted waterfront property. This property is available for purchase on its own or in combination with the 1-acre parcel next door.
